

Gary Wingrove

Mayo Clinic Medical Transport, Director of Government Relations and Strategic Affairs

National EMS Management Association, President

---

Biographical Sketch

Gary Wingrove is president of the National EMS Management Association. He is director of government relations and strategic affairs for Mayo Clinic Medical Transport. He serves as a Secretary of Transportation appointee to the National EMS Advisory Council, as EMS advisor to the Technical Assistance and Services Center for the federal critical access hospital program, is past chair of the advisory board of the Rural Domestic Preparedness Consortium, chairs the EMS Issue Group of the National Rural Health Association, coordinates the International Roundtable on Community Paramedicine and is a founder and past president of the North Central EMS Institute. Gary lives in rural Minnesota with his wife Karen and 11 year old twins, Joey and Allie.